

AERIAL ACROBATICS — An estimated two-day total crowd of more than a quarter million people watched the headline acts — the USAF Thunderbirds and the Army Golden Knights Parachute Team — as well as civilian stunt pilots and 19 other flying demonstrations. They toured some 60 aircraft on the ground and even tested their skills at the climbing wall next to the C-5 display.

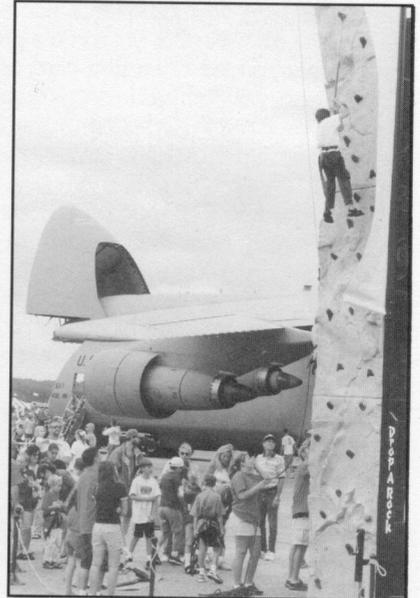

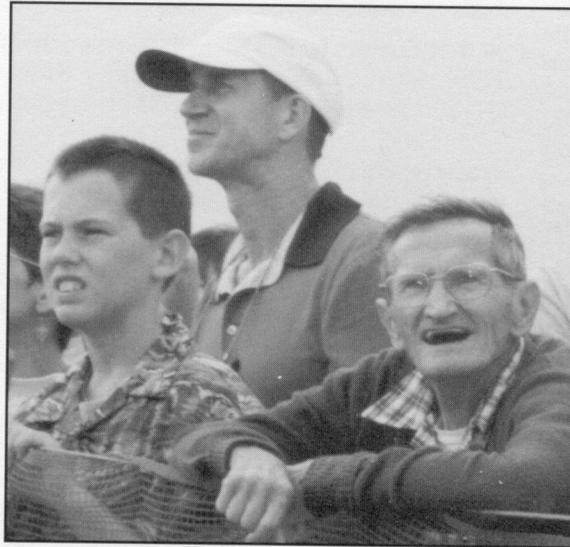

Photo by MSgt. Tom Allocco